COUNTY OF LOS ANGELES
SHERIFF'S DEPARTMENT

FORCE EVALUATION/ INTERNAL INVESTIGATION SUMMARY

CASE NUMBER: FO2336692/ IV2337147

SUBJECT: Deputy Kevin Y. Yoon #[redacted]

DIVISION/ UNIT/ BUREAU: East Patrol Division / Temple Station

DATE/ TIME/ DAY: June 7, 2013, Friday, 0201 hours

LOCATION: Garvey Avenue/ Falling Leaf Avenue, Rosemead, California 91770

URN #: 013-05345-0532-057

ALLEGATION:

On-call Internal Affairs Bureau Lieutenant Dominic Valencia, along with Sergeants Brenda Gibson and Dinah Grote responded to Temple Station regarding a force incident in which Suspect Alfredo Villalobos sustained rib fractures. During the preliminary force investigation, this investigator found video evidence that contradicted the sequence of events established by Subject Deputy Kevin Yoon in his incident report thus indicating he may have fabricated a portion of the report.

SYNOPSIS:

On July 15, 2013, the Los Angeles County Sheriff's Department Internal Criminal Investigations Bureau (ICIB) opened an investigation as requested by former Captain Alicia E. Ault regarding an allegation that Subject Deputy Kevin Yoon made false statements in the police report he authored on June 7, 2013. ICIB Sergeant [redacted], employee number [redacted], investigated and documented the facts of this case in a Supplementary Report. The complete investigation is attached as Exhibit A.

The case was referred to the Justice System Integrity Division of the District Attorney's Office for filing consideration. On July 15, 2014, the case was rejected by Deputy District Attorney Oscar Plascencia for insufficient evidence under District Attorney Case Number 34346243.

See Exhibit B for a copy of the Los Angeles County District Attorney Charge Evaluation Worksheet. This investigation is based on statements by the involved deputies, witnesses at the scene, and the information obtained during the investigation, along with various written documentation.

Subject Deputy Yoon was driving a marked patrol vehicle westbound on Garvey Avenue in the city of Rosemead when he heard the revving of an engine and screeching of tires at the intersection of San Gabriel Boulevard. He then saw an individual later identified as Suspect Alfredo Villalobos, booking number 3584908, in a Green Honda Accord, stopped on San Gabriel Boulevard, facing southbound, at the intersection of Garvey Avenue. Subject Deputy Yoon made a right turn onto San Gabriel Boulevard traveling northbound then made a U-turn and pulled behind Suspect Villalobos' vehicle. Suspect Villalobos made a right turn onto westbound Garvey Avenue and Subject Deputy Yoon followed. Subject Deputy Yoon turned on his overhead lights to conduct a traffic stop of Suspect Villalobos' vehicle for not having a rear license plate.

Suspect Villalobos continued driving and made a left turn onto Pine Street travelling southbound a few feet before pulling his vehicle over to the right curb and stopping. Subject Deputy Yoon stopped the patrol vehicle behind Suspect Villalobos' vehicle, exited and approached. As he reached the front of the patrol vehicle, Suspect Villalobos sped away at a high rate of speed travelling southbound on Pine Street. Subject Deputy Yoon ran back to the patrol vehicle, entered it and pursued Suspect Villalobos southbound on Pine Street. After travelling about forty feet, Subject Deputy Yoon turned off his overhead lights, but continued to pursue Suspect Villalobos.

Subject Deputy Yoon pursed Suspect Villalobos southbound on Pine Street travelling eighty- five miles per hour to westbound on Graves Avenue, traveling forty-five miles per hour to northbound on Falling Leaf Avenue traveling fifty-one to seventy-seven miles per hour in a residential area. See Exhibit A, page 111 for a copy of the Map History Report dated June 7, 2013, generated from Subject Deputy Yoon's MDC.

> IAB Note: See Exhibit C for Closed Circuit Television (CCTV) footage of a portion of the pursuit. It should be noted that Subject Deputy Yoon's original account of the above incident as described in his Incident Report did not match the CCTV footage or the Map History Report generated from the Mobile Digital Computer (MDC) in the patrol vehicle driven by Subject Deputy Yoon. Compare Exhibit A, page 23, the Incident Report to page 119, the GPS map template depicting Subject Deputy Yoon's MDC route recorded in the Map History Report.

Suspect Villalobos failed to stop at the posted stop sign located at the intersection of Falling Leaf Avenue and Garvey Avenue.

Suspect Villalobos attempted to complete a left turn traveling westbound on Garvey Avenue when he collided with Witness [redacted] vehicle traveling westbound on Garvey Avenue in the number two lane. See Exhibit D, State of California Traffic Collision Report for further details. Both vehicles ended up on the sidewalk of the north curb line of Garvey Avenue. Suspect Villalobos' vehicle was facing south and Witness [redacted] vehicle was facing north.

Subject Deputy Yoon drove to the accident scene and parked his vehicle along the north curb line near the two vehicles involved in the collision. As Subject Deputy Yoon opened the car door to exit the patrol vehicle, Suspect Villalobos accelerated and struck the front bumper of the vehicle. See Exhibit E, Supervisor's Report of Incident or Damage to County Vehicle Report documented by Witness Sergeant Alan Liu, employee number [redacted]

> IAB Note: A County of Los Angeles Sheriff's Department Pursuit Evaluation Form was completed by this investigator because Subject Deputy Yoon did not tell his supervisors he was involved in a vehicle pursuit. See Miscellaneous Documents.

Suspect Villalobos exited his vehicle and fled on foot running around the trunk of the patrol vehicle where he nearly collided with Subject Deputy Yoon who grabbed his upper right arm and ordered him several times to stop running. Suspect Villalobos failed to comply and continued running southbound across Garvey Avenue. Subject Deputy Yoon requested assistance via his portable radio (See Exhibit C for a copy of the radio transmission) and chased Suspect Villalobos on foot for approximately fifty feet to a fence he was attempting to climb over.

> IAB Note: The foot pursuit lasted 9 seconds. See Exhibit F for the Foot Pursuit Evaluation Form completed by Witness Sergeant Alan Liu.

Subject Deputy Yoon grabbed Suspect Villalobos' legs and ordered him to stop resisting. He failed to comply and kicked his legs at Subject Deputy Yoon striking him on his left hand. Subject Deputy Yoon pulled Suspect Villalobos off the fence and onto the ground where he landed on his hands and knees, but continued fighting. Subject Deputy Yoon struck Suspect Villalobos on the right side of his face approximately three times. Suspect Villalobos fell to the ground, but continued fighting and trying to get up despite Subject Deputy Yoon's orders to stop fighting and to put his hands behind his back. Subject Deputy Yoon put his left knee on top of Suspect Villalobos' upper back to prevent him from getting up. He then attempted to pull Suspect Villalobos' left arm behind his back, but failed because his arm was tucked underneath his body. He ordered Suspect Villalobos again to put his hands behind his back, but he did not comply. Subject Deputy Yoon struck Suspect Villalobos with his right fist twice on his left rib area and was able to pull his arms behind his back.

Witness Deputy [redacted], employee number [redacted], arrived on scene and handcuffed Suspect Villalobos who was cooperative at the time.

During this incident, Subject Deputy Yoon sustained an abrasion to his right forearm and a sprained left thumb. He was treated for his injuries at U.S. Health Works in Irwindale. Suspect Villalobos sustained three fractured ribs on his left side. He was treated at the scene then transported to Greater El Monte Hospital for an okay to book. Doctor Sammy Chan treated Suspect Villalobos for non-displaced left lateral eighth, ninth and tenth rib fractures (Medical Record Number 684285).

Suspect Villalobos was ultimately transported to Temple Station where he was booked for the following charges: Assault with a Deadly Weapon on a Peace Officer, 245 P.C., Possession of a Controlled Substance (Methamphetamine), 11377(a) H&S, Battery on a Peace Officer, 243(b) P.C., and Hit and Run, 2002(a) CVC. Los Angeles County Deputy District Attorney Oscar Plascencia declined to file charges against Suspect Villalobos due to this investigation regarding the veracity of several statements in Subject Deputy Yoon's incident report. See Exhibit B, page 16 D.

IAB Note: Subject Deputy Yoon wrote the Incident Report. Sergeant Scott Chapman, employee number [redacted], and Deputies [redacted], employee number [redacted] and Anthony Flores, Jr., employee number [redacted], wrote Supplemental Reports. All aforementioned reports are included with this case as Exhibit A, pages 19-30. In addition, Detective Craig Johnson, employee number [redacted], wrote two Supplementary Reports documenting his interviews of Suspect Villalobos and Witness [redacted]. See Exhibit G.

CHARGES FILED AND DISPOSITONS:

Los Angeles County Deputy District Attorney Oscar Plascencia declined to file charges against Suspect Villalobos due to the investigation regarding the veracity of several statements in Subject Deputy Yoon's incident report. See Exhibit B, page 16 D.

WEATHER AND LIGHTING CONDITIONS:

The force occurred outdoors during the dark early morning hours, but a street lamp dimly illuminated the area.

INVOLVED EMPLOYEE STATEMENT:

The following is a summary of the recorded interview of the involved employee's statements to Internal Affairs Bureau investigators. For additional information, refer to the attached verbatim transcripts included with this case under Transcribed Interviews.

Subject Deputy Kevin Yoon, employee number [redacted], was interviewed on October 28, 2014, at 1005 hours by Sergeants Brenda Gibson and Jose Garcia at Internal Affairs Bureau. He was represented by Attorney Elizabeth Gibbons from Green and Shinee Law Firm. The interview was digitally, audio recorded.

Subject Deputy Yoon has been employed by the Los Angeles County Sheriff's Department for eight years. He is currently assigned to Temple Station and has worked there for approximately two and a half years. During this incident, he was working Unit 53T1, in the City of Rosemead. Subject Deputy Yoon was responsible for handling traffic reports and assisting other units as needed. During this interview, Subject Deputy Yoon was asked if his Incident Report was an accurate account of the incident. He stated he re-read his report and realized he made some mistakes and wanted to clarify those mistakes.

Subject Deputy Yoon said Suspect Villalobos was not travelling eastbound on Garvey Avenue, but he was stopped at the intersection of Garvey Avenue on San Gabriel Boulevard facing south. Subject Deputy Yoon was driving westbound on Garvey Avenue approaching San Gabriel Boulevard when he heard the revving of an engine and screeching of tires. He was looking at his Mobile Digital Computer (MDC) at the time and did not see where the noise was emitting from. As Subject Deputy Yoon stopped at the intersection, he saw Suspect Villalobos' vehicle stopped facing southbound on San Gabriel Boulevard preparing to make a right turn onto Garvey Avenue heading westbound. Suspect Villalobos had the right of way, but was hesitant in turning. Subject Deputy Yoon made a left turn onto San Gabriel Boulevard travelling northbound then made a U-turn travelling southbound behind Suspect Villalobos who then turned onto Garvey Avenue, traveling westbound. (See Subject Deputy Yoon's Transcribed Interview, page 3).

Subject Deputy Yoon said he activated his overhead lights to conduct a traffic stop of Suspect Villalobos' vehicle because he had a paper license plate in the rear and did not have a registration sticker in the back. Suspect Villalobos continued driving westbound on Garvey Avenue to Pine Street where he made a left turn heading southbound and stopped. Subject Deputy Yoon stopped behind Suspect Villalobos' vehicle, exited the radio car and approached Suspect Villalobos' vehicle. When he reached the front of the radio car, Suspect Villalobos sped away in his vehicle. (See Subject Deputy Yoon's Transcribed Interview, page 4).

Subject Deputy Yoon ran back to the radio car, sat inside and drove away to follow Suspect Villalobos. He turned off his overhead lights after driving twenty to forty feet.

He said Suspect Villalobos was driving at a high rate of speed and he lost sight of him after reaching Newmark Street because Pine Street slightly turned to the right. After Subject Deputy Yoon cleared the intersection of Newmark Street and Pine Street, he saw Suspect Villalobos still travelling southbound on Pine Street and continued following him. Subject Deputy Yoon said Suspect Villalobos was at least a hundred yards ahead of him. (See Subject Deputy Yoon's Transcribed Interview, pages 4, 11 and 12).

> IAB Note: According to the Map History Report from the vehicle Subject Deputy Yoon was driving, he reached speeds of 85 miles per hour while travelling southbound on Pine Street passing Constance Street. See Exhibit A, page 111.

Subject Deputy Yoon stated he did not realize he was in a pursuit because he thought his lights and siren had to be on while chasing Suspect Villalobos. In addition, Subject Deputy Yoon stated he did not use the radio to request assistance because he was unsure of why he was following Suspect Villalobos and he did not want to sound panicked over the radio. (See Subject Deputy Yoon's Transcribed Interview, pages 5, 8, 9 and 13). Although, Subject Deputy Yoon followed Suspect Villalobos southbound on Pine Street to westbound on Graves Avenue to northbound on Falling Leaf Avenue, he stated that at the time he wrote his Incident Report, he did not remember the direction of travel he drove or the names of the streets he travelled. He further explained that a couple of days after he was relieved of duty for falsifying a police report, he re-read his report and drove the scene. He then realized his report was written incorrectly. (See Subject Deputy Yoon's Transcribed Interview, pages 9-10).

Subject Deputy Yoon stated that when he turned northbound on Falling Leaf Avenue, Suspect Villalobos was almost at the end of the block. Subject Deputy Yoon did not know how fast he was driving nor could he estimate how fast Suspect Villalobos was driving. Subject Deputy Yoon was more than two hundred yards away from Suspect Villalobos when he saw him run the stop sign and collide with Witness [redacted] vehicle which was traveling westbound on Garvey Avenue. He said since the collision looked "pretty bad," he sped up to reach the scene of the accident. (See Subject Deputy Yoon's Transcribed Interview, pages 13-14).

> IAB Note: According to the Map History Report from the vehicle Subject Deputy Yoon was driving, he reached speeds of 77 miles per hour while travelling northbound on Falling Leaf Avenue between Fern Avenue and Newmark Avenue. See Exhibit A, page 111.

IAB Note: Although, Subject Deputy Yoon stated the accident appeared "pretty bad", he did not request paramedics to the scene. (See Subject Deputy Yoon's Transcribed Interview, pages 19-20).

Subject Deputy Yoon parked the patrol vehicle approximately five to ten feet in front of the accident scene, unintentionally blocking Suspect Villalobos' vehicle. Suspect Villalobos revved his engine, drove off the curb and collided into the right front bumper of the radio car. Suspect Villalobos then exited his vehicle and ran eastbound towards the trunk of the radio car. Subject Deputy Yoon exited the radio car, and ordered Suspect Villalobos to stop running at least six times. He grabbed Suspect Villalobos' upper right arm, but could not maintain his grasp. (See Subject Deputy Yoon's Transcribed Interview, pages 15-18). Suspect Villalobos ran and Subject Deputy Yoon requested assistance via his handheld radio as he pursed Suspect Villalobos on foot. (See Exhibit C, for the CD containing the audio of the radio transmission).

Subject Deputy Yoon ran southbound approximately fifty feet across two traffic lanes on Garvey Avenue to the fence Suspect Villalobos was trying to climb over. Subject Deputy Yoon "bear hugged" Suspect Villalobos' legs with his arms and ordered him to stop resisting approximately five times. (See Subject Deputy Yoon's Transcribed Interview, page 21). Suspect Villalobos kept kicking his legs and kicked Subject Deputy Yoon on his left hand. He then ordered Suspect Villalobos to stop fighting as he pulled him off the fence and onto the ground where Suspect Villalobos landed on his hands and feet. Subject Deputy Yoon held Suspect Villalobos' waist and landed behind him to his left side. Suspect Villalobos then twisted his body and swung his left elbow up towards Subject Deputy Yoon's face, but missed. Subject Deputy Yoon lost his balance and landed on top of Suspect Villalobos' back as he struggled to keep him on the ground. Suspect Villalobos kicked his legs and swung his elbow back as he tried to get up. He struck Subject Deputy Yoon in the right shoulder with his elbow and Subject Deputy Yoon struck him on the right side of his face three times with his right fist. Suspect Villalobos fell to the ground, but continued struggling. Subject Deputy Yoon ordered Suspect Villalobos to stop fighting repeatedly and to put his hands behind his back, but he continued kicking his legs and trying to get up.

Subject Deputy Yoon used his body weight to hold Suspect Villalobos' arms behind his back as he ordered him to stop moving. Subject Deputy Yoon said Suspect Villalobos stopped struggling because he was probably exhausted like he was. Witness Deputy [redacted] then arrived and handcuffed Suspect Villalobos. (See Subject Deputy Yoon's Transcribed Interview, page 27).

> IAB Note: On a photograph marked #1, depicting Garvey Avenue west of Falling Leaf Avenue during daylight hours, Subject Deputy Yoon marked the area he struggled with Suspect Villalobos during this incident, which occurred during the dark early morning hours. See Exhibit K.

Subject Deputy Yoon reported the incident as described in his Incident Report to Witness Sergeant Alan Liu. He did not report being involved in a vehicle pursuit or a foot pursuit. Based on his understanding of the Department's vehicle pursuit and foot pursuit policies, he did not believe he was in pursuit at the time. (See Subject Deputy Yoon's Transcribed Interview, pages 5, 31 and 32).

SWORN WITNESS STATEMENTS:

The following is a summary of the recorded interviews of the sworn witness statements to Internal Affairs Bureau investigators. For additional information, refer to the attached verbatim transcripts included with this case under Transcribed Interviews.

Witness Deputy [redacted], employee number [redacted], was interviewed on October 17, 2014, at 1155 hours by Sergeants Brenda Gibson and Jose Garcia at Internal Affairs Bureau. He was represented by Attorney Elizabeth Gibbons from Green and Shinee Law Firm. The interview was digitally, audio recorded.

Witness Deputy [redacted] has been employed by the Los Angeles County Sheriff's Department for [redacted] years. He has been assigned to Temple Station for [redacted] years. During this incident, he was on training for [redacted] months and worked with his training officer, Witness Sergeant Scott Chapman, in Unit 51. They responded to Garvey Avenue and Falling Leaf Avenue because Subject Deputy Yoon requested emergent assistance via Dispatch 11. When they arrived on scene, Witness Deputy [redacted] saw Subject Deputy Yoon's vehicle parked near two other vehicles near the north curb line of Garvey Avenue at Falling Leaf Avenue, but did not see Subject Deputy Yoon. While attempting to locate Subject Deputy Yoon, Witness Deputy [redacted] heard him yelling commands on the south curb line of Garvey Avenue at Falling Leaf Avenue. (See Witness Deputy [redacted] Transcribed Interview, pages 5-6). Witness Deputy [redacted] told Witness Sergeant Chapman to stop the vehicle and he exited to assist Subject Deputy Yoon.

IAB Note: On a photograph depicting the scene of the incident, Witness Deputy [redacted] marked the area Witness Sergeant Chapman stopped the patrol vehicle. See Exhibit L, the photograph marked "1."

As Witness Deputy [redacted] ran to assist Subject Deputy Yoon, he saw him kneeling over Suspect Villalobos who was lying on his stomach. Witness Deputy [redacted] stumbled and fell before reaching Subject Deputy Yoon. Once Witness Deputy [redacted] reached Subject Deputy Yoon, he saw him holding one of Suspect Villalobos' arms behind his back. Suspect Villalobos willingly had his other arm behind his back. Witness Deputy [redacted] handcuffed Suspect Villalobos. (See Witness Deputy [redacted] Transcribed Interview, pages 8-9).

IAB Note: On a photograph depicting the scene of the incident, Witness Deputy [redacted] marked the area he saw Subject Deputy Yoon and Suspect Villalobos. See Exhibit L, the photograph marked "2."

Witness Deputy [redacted] did not use force on Suspect Villalobos and he did not witness anyone else use force on him.

Witness Sergeant Scott Chapman, employee number [redacted], was interviewed on October 17, 2014, at 1125 hours by Sergeants Brenda Gibson and Jose Garcia at Internal Affairs Bureau. He was represented by Attorney Elizabeth Gibbons from Green and Shinee Law Firm. The interview was digitally, audio recorded.

Witness Sergeant Chapman has been employed by the Los Angeles County Sheriff's Department for twenty years. He promoted to the rank of Sergeant in [redacted] and is currently assigned to Pico Rivera Station. He has been assigned to [redacted]. During this incident, he was a training officer and Witness Deputy [redacted] was his trainee. They responded to the location because Subject Deputy Yoon requested assistance via Dispatch 11.

Witness Sergeant Chapman initially drove westbound on Garvey Avenue from San Gabriel Avenue where he saw Subject Deputy Yoon's patrol vehicle and two other vehicles involved in a traffic collision. He drove fifty yards past the vehicles and made a U-turn heading eastbound on Garvey Avenue searching for Subject Deputy Yoon. According to Witness Sergeant Chapman, Witness Deputy [redacted] said, "stop, stop, stop," and Witness Sergeant Chapman backed up because he drove past Subject Deputy Yoon. He stopped the patrol vehicle near the intersection of Garvey Avenue and Falling Leaf Avenue and Witness Deputy [redacted] exited the vehicle. Witness Sergeant Chapman saw Subject Deputy Yoon on top of Suspect Villalobos who was "proned out" on the ground. (See Witness Sergeant Chapman's Transcribed Interview, pages 8-9). As Witness Sergeant Chapman exited the patrol vehicle, Witness Deputy [redacted] was already handcuffing Suspect Villalobos.

Witness Sergeant Chapman did not use or witness anyone using force on Suspect Villalobos. Since Suspect Villalobos was subdued, Witness Sergeant Chapman walked to the accident site to check for injured passengers. He requested paramedics to the location because Witness [redacted] appeared injured.

> IAB Note: On a photograph depicting the scene of the incident, Witness Sergeant Chapman marked the area he parked the patrol vehicle. In addition, he marked the area he saw Subject Deputy Yoon and Suspect Villalobos. See Exhibit M.

Witness Deputy Anthony Flores, Jr., employee number [redacted], was interviewed on October 17, 2014, at 1215 hours by Sergeants Brenda Gibson and Jose Garcia at Internal Affairs Bureau. He was represented by Attorney Elizabeth Gibbons from Green and Shinee Law Firm. The interview was digitally, audio recorded.

Witness Deputy Flores has been employed by the Los Angeles County Sheriff's Department for eight years. During this incident he was on his [redacted] of training and Witness Sergeant David Kearney was his training officer. They responded to the location regarding an assistance request over Dispatch 11. When they arrived on scene, Witness Deputy Flores saw a patrol vehicle with flashing lights and vehicles with traffic collision damage. He exited the patrol vehicle and stood by Witness Deputy [redacted] who was standing near Suspect Villalobos. Suspect Villalobos was handcuffed and lying on the ground on his stomach. Subject Deputy Yoon was walking away when Witness Deputy Flores approached Witness Deputy [redacted] (See Witness Deputy Flores' Transcribed Interview, pages 5 and 13).

> IAB Note: On a photograph depicting the scene of the incident, Witness Deputy Flores marked his position as well as Witness Deputy [redacted], Subject Deputy Yoon and Suspect Villalobos' positions. See Exhibit N.

Witness Deputy Flores did not use force on Suspect Villalobos and he did not witness anyone using force on him. In addition, he did not see any visible signs of injury to Suspect Villalobos nor did he complain of any. However, paramedics arrived on scene and treated Suspect Villalobos. Suspect Villalobos was then transported by ambulance to Greater El Monte Hospital. Witness Deputy Flores accompanied him in the ambulance and Deputy Roberto Roman, employee number [redacted] followed in a radio car.

Witness Sergeant David Kearney, employee number [redacted], was interviewed on October 14, 2014, at 1005 hours by Sergeants Brenda Gibson and Catrina Khasaempanth at Internal Affairs Bureau. Sergeant Kearney chose not to have a representative present during the interview. The interview was digitally, audio recorded.

Witness Sergeant Kearney has been employed by the Los Angeles County Sheriff's Department for fifteen years. He promoted to the rank of Sergeant in [redacted], and is currently assigned to Men's Central Jail. During this incident he was a training officer assigned to Temple Station. He was working with his trainee, Witness Deputy Flores, in Unit 57A. They responded to the location regarding an assistance request broadcasted over Dispatch 11.

When they arrived at the location, Witness Sergeant Kearney parked behind the patrol vehicle he believed Witness Sergeant Chapman was driving. He saw Subject Deputy Yoon standing on the south sidewalk of Garvey Avenue and Suspect Villalobos lying face down in the dirt with his pants pulled down to his knees. Suspect Villalobos was handcuffed behind his back and he was screaming. (See Witness Sergeant Kearney's Transcribed Interview, pages 5-7).

> IAB Note: On a photograph marked #1, depicting the scene of the incident, Witness Sergeant Kearney marked the positions of the radio car he drove, the radio car Witness Sergeant Chapman drove and Subject Deputy Yoon's position. See Exhibit O.

Witness Sergeant Kearney said he believed Witness Sergeant Chapman was standing on the south curb of Garvey Avenue with Subject Deputy Yoon, but he was not positive. He also did not recall if Witness Sergeant Chapman had a trainee with him. Witness Sergeant Kearney did not witness or use force on Suspect Villalobos.

Witness Sergeant Kearney saw two cars on the north sidewalk that appeared to have been involved in a traffic collision. The radio car that was driven by Subject Deputy Yoon was parked next to the cars. Witness Sergeant Kearney said he wrote the traffic collision report because he was the only traffic trained deputy in the field during this incident (See Exhibit D). He interviewed Witness [redacted] the driver of the vehicle Suspect Villalobos collided into. Witness [redacted] did not state whether or not he saw Subject Deputy Yoon use force on Suspect Villalobos and Witness Sergeant Kearney did not ask. In addition, he interviewed Witness [redacted] who was stopped in front of the entrance gate to her residence on Garvey Avenue [redacted] of Falling Leaf Avenue during this incident. Witness [redacted] did not state whether or not she saw Subject Deputy Yoon use force on Suspect Villalobos and Witness Sergeant Kearney did not ask.

> IAB Note: On the photographs marked #2 and #3, depicting the intersection of Garvey Avenue and Falling Leaf Avenue, Witness Sergeant Kearney marked the position of Witness Valdez' vehicle when she saw the traffic collision. See Exhibit O.

Witness Sergeant Alan Liu, employee number [redacted], was interviewed on October 15, 2014, at 1117 hours by Sergeants Brenda Gibson and Catrina Khasaempanth at Internal Affairs Bureau. Witness Sergeant Liu chose not to have a representative present during the interview. The interview was digitally, audio recorded.

Witness Sergeant Liu has been employed by the Los Angeles County Sheriff's Department for fifteen years. He has been a sergeant for [redacted] and is currently assigned to the Internal Monitoring Performance Audits and Accountability Command unit. During this incident he was the field sergeant (Unit 50S) at Temple Station and had been assigned there for over a year. Witness Sergeant Liu went to the location because Subject Deputy Yoon "went on the patch" regarding a foot pursuit. When he arrived he saw the patrol car driven by Subject Deputy Yoon parked along the north curb of Garvey Avenue and two other civilian vehicles on the sidewalk. In addition, Suspect Villalobos was detained and handcuffed on the south side of the street on Garvey Avenue. (See Witness Sergeant Liu's Transcribed Interview, page 5).

> IAB Note: On a photograph marked #1, depicting Witness [redacted] vehicle and the rear end of Suspect Villalobos' vehicle, Witness Sergeant Liu pointed to the position he parked the Chevy Tahoe he was driving, which is depicted in the picture. In addition, on a photograph marked #2, he circled the area he saw Suspect Villalobos and Witness Deputy [redacted] when he arrived. See Exhibit P.

Witness Sergeant Liu made sure all deputies were okay as well as Suspect Villalobos who was moaning and complaining of pain. Paramedics responded and treated Suspect Villalobos. In addition, Witness Sergeant Liu made sure deputies assisted Witness [redacted] as needed and that a traffic collision report was being written.

Witness Sergeant Liu said Subject Deputy Yoon explained what happened and reported the force he used against Suspect Villalobos. (See Witness Sergeant Liu's Transcribed Interview, pages 8, 9 and 11). Witness Sergeant Liu checked the businesses on the southeast corner, near the incident, for surveillance cameras and did not see any. He also spoke to an unidentified lady who said she helped Witness [redacted] but did not see anything.

Witness Sergeant Liu completed a Foot Pursuit Evaluation Form, but did not complete a vehicle Pursuit Evaluation form because he was unaware that a vehicle pursuit occurred. He also completed the Supervisor's Report of Incident or Damage to County Vehicle Report and an Employer's Report of Occupational Injury documenting Subject Deputy Yoon's injuries.

Witness Sergeant Alan Liu was interviewed again on January 9, 2015, at 1410 hours by Sergeant Brenda Gibson at the Internal Monitoring Performance Audits and Accountability Command (IMPAAC) Unit. Witness Sergeant Liu chose not to have a representative present during this interview. The interview was digitally, audio recorded.

Witness Sergeant Liu reviewed the video he recorded of the Watch Commander's interview of Suspect Villalobos prior to this follow-up interview. During the Watch Commander's interview, Suspect Villalobos stated Subject Deputy Yoon initiated a traffic stop and Suspect Villalobos stopped his vehicle then drove away. During the Watch Commander's interview, Witness Sergeant Liu did not realize Suspect Villalobos said he stopped his vehicle. In addition, he did not believe a traffic stop or vehicle pursuit occurred based on Subject Deputy Yoon's account of events. (See Witness Sergeant Liu's Follow-Up Transcribed Interview, pages 3- 4).

Witness Lieutenant Ignacio Somoano, employee number [redacted] was interviewed on January 15, 2015, at 1102 hours by Sergeant Brenda Gibson at Temple Station in the Community Relations Office. Witness Lieutenant Somoano chose not to have a representative present during the interview. The interview was digitally, audio recorded.

Witness Lieutenant Somoano is a twenty-eight year veteran of the Los Angeles County Sheriff's Department. He has been a lieutenant for [redacted] and has been assigned to Temple Station the entire time. His current assignment is Special Assignment Lieutenant (SAL) for the City of Rosemead. Witness Lieutenant Somoano was the Watch Commander on duty during this incident.

Witness Lieutenant Somoano was aware of this incident because he heard Subject Deputy Yoon's emergency radio traffic. He said Witness Sergeant Liu contacted him by telephone and relayed the circumstances of this incident. Witness Lieutenant Somoano went to the Greater El Monte Hospital where he interviewed Suspect Villalobos. (See Exhibit C and Suspect Villalobos' Transcribed Watch Commander's Interview).

During his interview of Suspect Villalobos, Witness Lieutenant Somoano was not clear that a traffic stop occurred. His understanding was that Subject Deputy Yoon turned on his lights at Garvey Avenue and Fern Avenue to drive through the intersection and not to initiate a traffic stop. (See Witness Lieutenant Somoano's Transcribed Interview pages 4-5). Witness Lieutenant Somoano said Suspect Villalobos made inconsistent statements during his interview and he was not convinced his statements were true and accurate. Ordinarily, Witness Lieutenant Somoano would have followed up with additional questions to clarify the inconsistencies, but shortly after his interview of Suspect Villalobos, it was determined that this case would be handled by Internal Affairs Bureau. (See Witness Lieutenant Somoano's Transcribed Interview pages 5-7).

NON-DEPARTMENTAL WITNESSES:

Witness [redacted] was interviewed on June 7, 2013, at 0258 hours by Witness Sergeant Liu at the scene. The interview was videotaped (Exhibit C) and transcribed by IAB investigators. For additional information, refer to the attached verbatim transcripts included with this case under Transcribed Interviews. The following is a summary of Witness [redacted] interview.

Witness [redacted] was driving westbound on Garvey Avenue when he was "T-Boned and side swiped" by the suspect's vehicle. Witness [redacted] remained in his vehicle the entire time and did not see any contact between Subject Deputy Yoon and Suspect Villalobos. Witness [redacted] was not injured.

Witness [redacted] was interviewed on June 7, 2013, by Witness Sergeant Kearney at the scene. The interview was not recorded. Witness [redacted] was in her vehicle stopped in front of the entrance gate to her residence. She heard the loud sound of a vehicle and looked towards the intersection of Garvey Avenue and Falling Leaf Avenue.

Witness Valdez saw Suspect Villalobos travelling northbound on Falling Leaf Avenue, enter the intersection at Garvey Avenue and collide with Witness [redacted], who was travelling westbound on Garvey Avenue.

> IAB Note: This investigator made several attempts to contact Witness [redacted], but was unable to locate her.

SUSPECT STATEMENTS:

Suspect Alfredo Villalobos was interviewed on June 7, 2013, at 1155 hours by Internal Affairs Bureau (IAB) Sergeants Brenda Gibson and Dinah Grote at Temple Station in the Booking area. The interview was digitally, audio recorded. For additional information, refer to the attached verbatim transcripts included with this case under Transcribed Interviews. The following is a summary of Suspect Villalobos' IAB interview.

Suspect Villalobos was stopped facing southbound on San Gabriel Boulevard at Garvey Avenue when he saw Subject Deputy Yoon travelling westbound on Garvey Avenue approaching San Gabriel Boulevard. He said Subject Deputy Yoon turned right on San Gabriel Boulevard heading northbound then made a U-Turn. Suspect Villalobos turned right onto Garvey Avenue and was travelling westbound when Subject Deputy Yoon followed. When Suspect Villalobos turned left onto Pine Avenue heading southbound, Subject Deputy Yoon followed and turned his overhead lights on when he was two hundred feet onto Pine Avenue. (See Suspect Villalobos' IAB Transcribed Interview, page 5).

Suspect Villalobos drove slowly while looking for a place to pull over. When Suspect Villalobos came to a complete stop, Deputy Yoon exited the patrol car and approached. Suspect Villalobos said he panicked and sped away driving seventy to eighty miles per hour because his license was suspended and his tags were expired. (See Suspect Villalobos' IAB Transcribed Interview, pages 6-12).

Suspect Villalobos said he saw Subject Deputy Yoon's headlights behind him when he reached Graves Avenue and when he turned on Falling Leaf Avenue. He said Subject Deputy Yoon was "about a mile or maybe yards" behind him. In addition, he said he did not see any other cars travelling on the roadway. (See Suspect Villalobos' IAB Transcribed Interview, pages 6-13 and 16). When Suspect Villalobos reached Garvey Avenue he slowed down, made a left turn heading westbound, and collided with Witness [redacted] vehicle. Both vehicles "spun out" and they landed on the curb next to each other. Suspect Villalobos' vehicle stalled.

Subject Deputy Yoon stopped the radio car in front of the accident and Suspect Villalobos restarted his vehicle. When he tried to drive off the sidewalk, Subject Deputy Yoon blocked his path and Suspect Villalobos collided with the radio car. (See Suspect Villalobos' IAB Transcribed Interview, pages 17-19). Suspect Villalobos removed his seatbelt and ran eastbound on Garvey Avenue, then turned and ran southbound across Garvey Avenue. Suspect Villalobos said Subject Deputy Yoon ran next to him, but did not touch him. Suspect Villalobos stepped on a platform and tried to jump over a fence, but fell onto his feet. When he jumped on the platform again, Subject Deputy Yoon grabbed his waist and held on. Suspect Villalobos said he pulled himself up, but his pants slid down and he was hanging onto the fence "butt naked." (See Suspect Villalobos' IAB Transcribed Interview, pages 21-22 and 24). Subject Deputy Yoon grabbed his knees and below his knees, but did not give him any commands. Although, Suspect Villalobos' pants were down to his ankles, he managed to use both feet to kick Subject Deputy Yoon in the body. He said he was just trying to pull his pants up.

Subject Deputy Yoon pulled Suspect Villalobos off the fence and he landed face down in the dirt. Subject Deputy Yoon ordered Suspect Villalobos to "get down", or "lay down," then punched him on the right side of his temple, dazing him. Subject Deputy Yoon then punched Suspect Villalobos once on the right side of his ribs and once on the left side of his ribs. Subject Deputy Yoon ordered Suspect Villalobos to put his hands behind his back then he forced his hands behind his back. Suspect Villalobos was adamant that Subject Deputy Yoon handcuffed him because he did not remember seeing any other deputies there at that time. (See Suspect Villalobos' IAB Transcribed Interview, pages 24-28).

Suspect Alfredo Villalobos was interviewed on September 18, 2013, at 1118 hours by Internal Criminal Investigations Bureau (ICIB) Sergeants [redacted] and Raymond Moeller at his residence, [redacted]. The interview was digitally, audio recorded (See Exhibit C) and transcribed by IAB investigators.

For additional information, refer to the attached verbatim transcripts included with this case under Transcribed Interviews or Exhibit A, pages 7-11. The following is a summary of Suspect Villalobos' ICIB interview.

Suspect Villalobos reviewed the transcript of his interview with IAB sergeants and said it was an accurate representation of the interview that day. He told ICIB sergeants he exited the 10 Freeway and headed southbound on San Gabriel Boulevard. Suspect Villalobos stopped at a red light at the intersection of Garvey Avenue and San Gabriel Boulevard to make a right turn. When he looked to the left (east), he saw Subject Deputy Yoon's marked patrol car heading westbound on Garvey Avenue approaching San Gabriel Boulevard to make a right turn to head northbound on San Gabriel Boulevard. Suspect Villalobos said they looked at each other then made their respective turns. Suspect Villalobos looked in his rear-view mirror and saw that Subject Deputy Yoon made a U-turn on San Gabriel Boulevard and followed behind him. (See Suspect Villalobos' ICIB Transcribed Interview, page 6).

Suspect Villalobos said when they turned on Pine Street and slowly traveled about half a block, Subject Deputy Yoon turned on his overhead lights to pull him over. (See Suspect Villalobos' ICIB Transcribed Interview, pages 8-10). Suspect Villalobos stopped his vehicle and Subject Deputy Yoon stopped behind him. Suspect Villalobos said he did not have any contact with Subject Deputy Yoon and he did not see him approach his vehicle. Suspect Villalobos explained that Subject Deputy Yoon had the spotlight shined on him and he was blinded by the light. Suspect Villalobos drove away one to three seconds after he stopped.

IAB Note: During Suspect Villalobos' Interview with IAB sergeants, he said when Subject Deputy Yoon exited the patrol car and approached his vehicle, he panicked and sped away. (See Suspect Villalobos' IAB Transcribed Interview, pages 6-7).

Suspect Villalobos was positive he drove southbound on Pine Avenue to westbound on Graves Avenue. He traveled at least 50 miles per hour on Pine Avenue and slowed to 30 or 20 miles per hour during his turn onto Graves Avenue. He saw Subject Deputy Yoon's headlights following behind him on Pine Street, but did not see his overhead lights on. He said he never saw Subject Deputy Yoon turn onto Graves Avenue. When Suspect Villalobos turned northbound onto Falling Leaf Avenue from Graves Avenue, he did not see Subject Deputy Yoon following him. He said he saw headlights further behind him, but was unsure whose vehicle it was. Suspect Villalobos said he traveled 40 to 50 miles per hour northbound on Falling Leaf Avenue (See Suspect Villalobos' ICIB Transcribed Interview, pages 14-15, 17 and 18).

IAB Note: During Suspect Villalobos' Interview with IAB sergeants, he explained that Subject Deputy Yoon was a distance behind him initially because he had to go back to his vehicle to get in. Suspect Villalobos said Subject Deputy Yoon caught up to him and was behind him the entire time because there were no other cars traveling on the street at that time. (See Suspect Villalobos' IAB Transcribed Interview, pages 12-13).

When Suspect Villalobos turned westbound onto Garvey Avenue and collided with another vehicle, he did not see Subject Deputy Yoon following him. After Suspect Villalobos collided with the curb and landed on the sidewalk, Subject Deputy Yoon pulled in front of the collision. Suspect Villalobos tried to drive his vehicle off the sidewalk and Subject Deputy Yoon pulled the radio car forward to block Suspect Villalobos who then collided into the radio car. (See Suspect Villalobos' ICIB Transcribed Interview, page 15).

Suspect Villalobos exited his vehicle and tried to run one way, but Subject Deputy Yoon blocked his path. Suspect Villalobos ran across the street and tried to jump over a fence, but Subject Deputy Yoon grabbed his body. Suspect Villalobos was hanging onto the fence trying to pull himself up when he saw another police vehicle approaching. Subject Deputy Yoon was hanging onto Suspect Villalobos' feet when Suspect Villalobos' pants fell off and he was naked from the waist down. Suspect Villalobos let go of the fence and fell to the ground onto his elbows and knees. Subject Deputy Yoon ordered him to stay down then hit him on the right side of his face dazing him and causing a black eye. Suspect Villalobos said he never struggled and was just trying to cover himself. Subject Deputy Yoon ordered Suspect Villalobos to stay down again then punched him once on each side fracturing his rib. (See Suspect Villalobos' ICIB Transcribed Interview, pages 16-17).

Suspect Alfredo Villalobos was interviewed on June 7, 2013, at 0430 hours by Temple Station Watch Commander Ignacio Somoano and Witness Sergeant Liu at Greater El Monte Hospital in El Monte. The interview was videotaped (See Exhibit C) and transcribed by IAB investigators. For additional information, refer to the attached verbatim transcripts included with this case under Transcribed Interviews.
The following is a summary of Suspect Villalobos' Watch Commander's interview.

Suspect Villalobos was driving southbound on San Gabriel Boulevard approaching Garvey Avenue when he saw Subject Deputy Yoon travelling westbound on Garvey Avenue. Subject Deputy Yoon turned right and headed northbound on San Gabriel Boulevard then made a U-turn and drove behind Suspect Villalobos as he made a right turn on Garvey Avenue heading westbound. Subject Deputy Yoon activated his lights to conduct a traffic stop. Suspect Villalobos continued driving and made a left turn onto the first street (Pine Avenue) and drove slowly as Subject Deputy Yoon followed with flashing lights. Suspect Villalobos stopped, panicked and drove away.

He drove southbound to "Green Leaf" and went around the block traveling northbound to Garvey Avenue where he turned left and collided with a vehicle travelling westbound on Garvey Avenue. Both vehicles "spun out" and landed on the sidewalk. (See Suspect Villalobos' Watch Commander's Transcribed Interview, pages 1- 2).

Subject Deputy Yoon stopped in front of the collision and Suspect Villalobos panicked, accelerated and collided into the patrol car. Suspect Villalobos removed his seatbelt, exited the vehicle, ran eastbound on Garvey Avenue then crossed the street and attempted to climb over a "big black fence." Subject Deputy Yoon grabbed Suspect Villalobos around his waist and his pants fell down. Subject Deputy Yoon pulled him off the fence and told him to "lay down" as Suspect Villalobos fell to the ground. Subject Deputy Yoon punched him on the right side of his face once and he was "dazed." Subject Deputy Yoon then punched him once on his left rib and once on his right rib. Subject Deputy Yoon also told Suspect Villalobos to put his hands behind his back and he complied. Subject Deputy Yoon handcuffed him. (See Suspect Villalobos' Watch Commander's Transcribed Interview, pages 3- 7).

SUSPECT INJURIES:

> IAB Note: Copies of the photographs of Suspect Villalobos' injuries are included with this case. See Exhibit J.

REVIEW OF [redacted] SURVEILLANCE VIDEOS:

This investigator obtained surveillance videos from the [redacted] located at [redacted] in Rosemead (See Exhibit C). The [redacted] and parking lot is located on the south side of Garvey Avenue between San Gabriel Boulevard and Pine Street. The five surveillance cameras mounted outside the [redacted] recorded the initial contact between Subject Deputy Yoon and Suspect Villalobos. The surveillance system video is date and time stamped. For a chronological time line of events recorded by the surveillance video, see Exhibit A, pages 5-6.

REVIEW OF RADIO TRANSMISSIONS:

This investigator reviewed the radio transmissions from Temple Station's Dispatch 11 channel. On June 6, 2013, at approximately 0201 hours, Subject Deputy Yoon (Unit 53T1) requested "the patch" and advised a suspect was in a traffic collision and running from him on Garvey. An unidentified unit advised the location was "Garvey and Kelburn." Unit 50S announced he was responding from the station. Unit 51 announced he was "Code 6" (on scene), but did not have a visual on 53T1.

Approximately twelve seconds later, Unit 51 advised he had a visual on Unit 53T1 and that the situation was "Code 4 Nora" (No assistance needed. No evidence of crime at location). The Sheriff's Communications Center (SCC) dispatcher asked for clarification regarding "Code 4 Nora." Unit 51 advised the situation was "Code 4" (No further assistance needed), and to "10-22" (cancel) any further "Code 3" (Emergency, use red lights and siren) responses and to "drop the patch." The working frequency was released at 0203 hours. Unit 51 then requested paramedics to their location of Garvey Avenue and Falling Leaf Avenue. (See Exhibit C).
